

Sexual Freedom Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc.

Is alternative sexual expression (BDSM, polyamory) a reason to lose your kids, or go to jail? We don't think so.

We provide referrals to lawyers and child development specialists and assistance with legal and expert witness fees for people who are in trouble because of kink or multiple partners. We also do public education.

Please, if you can help with funds or expertise, contact us.
We're tax exempt.

Here's what one polyamorous family threatened with loss of a child said of us:

"This organization did the most of ANY organization to help us. . . .If you have any question as to who to donate your attention, time and money toward look no further than the Sexual Freedom Legal Defense and Education Fund."
